The chart displays the projected population growth for four major Colombian cities from 2005 to 2030. Bogotá, represented by a dark blue line, shows the most significant increase, starting at approximately 2.5 million in 2005 and reaching about 10.5 million by 2030. Medellín, shown in red, follows with a growth from about 1.5 million to 5.5 million. Bucaramanga (green line) and Pereira (purple line) show more gradual increases, reaching approximately 2.5 million and 2.0 million respectively by 2030. The chart includes a legend on the right side identifying the four cities.

Year	Bogotá,1	Medellín	Bucaramanga	Pereira
